MODERATING PEACE TERMS

[Associated Press Cable]
LONDON, December 1.—An unforeseen hitch has occurred in the signing of the armistice protocol between the Turkish government and the representatives of the Balkan States, and the matter has gone over until Tuesday to enable the representative of the king of Greece to secure authority in the terms as practically agreed upon.

SERVIA NOT BAITING AUSTRIA.

MAY NEGOTIATE NEW RUSSIAN TREATY
WASHINGTON, December 1.—With the opening of congress here tomorrow interest is centering on the announcement that a new treaty is being negotiated with Russia, which will probably come before the senate for ratification at the short session.
The abrogation of the former treaty with Russia, which was signed in 1837 was due to the refusal of Russia to recognize the American passports of American citizens who happened to be Jews.

It is believed here in official circles that this question of passports will again be the stumbling block to a satisfactory treaty with Russia.

DEMOCRATS WILL RUSH MONEY BILLS
WASHINGTON, December 1.—The Democratic leaders in the house of representatives have been in conference and have adopted a program for the session of congress to begin tomorrow. These leaders announce that it will be no part of Democratic tactics to delay the passage of the necessary appropriation bills.

It was officially announced through an Ottoman telegraph news agency today that temporary peace terms had been agreed upon by Turkey and the Balkan Allies.
The formal negotiations for a treaty of peace between the Allies and Turkey will take place at Sofia, the Bulgarian capital. The Montenegrin government yesterday named its three delegates to represent it in the final chapter of the war which was begun by the firing of a Montenegrin cannon.

Pamphlets have been distributed in the streets of Warsaw calling upon the people to commemorate the anniversary of the Polish revolution of 1830, by declaring that the Polish nation must take active measures against Russia, says a special dispatch from Warsaw.

"I consider this an aggravated case, not only because of the crime itself but because it involves the corruption of a government official, Customs Inspector Henry Gallagher," said Judge

De Haven today in the United States district court, when he gave the maximum sentence for smuggling to Robert Donaldson, assistant marine superintendent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, convicted of smuggling 360 tins of opium, worth $18,000, from the Siberia last December.

Donaldson was given a year in the Alameda county jail and a fine of two hundred dollars.

Olat Tveitmo of San Francisco supplied David Caplan and M. A. Schmidt with funds to leave the country after the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, according to the testimony, offered at the labor trial today by Raymond Burns a son of William Burns.

Emiliano Zapata, the insurgent leader, has carried out a recent threat that he would put to death any additional peace envoy sent by the government to treat with him. A few days ago he passed the sentence of death on two men who had approached him on behalf of the government.

President Taft's cabinet held a special meeting today to go over the proofs of the President's forthcoming general message to congress, which probably will be submitted late next week. The message deals with every subject upon which the President wishes to advise congress, except foreign questions.

The Mongolian city of Kobdo has been occupied by the Chinese troops without resistance from its inhabitants, according to dispatches from the capital of Mongolia.

Joe Rivers, lightweight champion, lip-contender, plans to invade the Atlantic seaboard fight centers to win a bit of the easy money believed to be waiting there for fighters, to whom a six round go is merely only a warm up.

What was at first thought to be a blot on the life of Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, was discovered here when a militant suffragist was dragged from behind an organ in the hall where the chancellor was to speak.

Lucille Cameron, the nineteen year old Minneapolis girl, for whose alleged abduction Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, was first arrested here, has disappeared. Johnson admits that he knew she had left her mother but does not know where she is. Johnson asserted the girl wrote him that he had disowned her mother and plans to return to the negro.

With a passenger list of 750 travelers, the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia sailed from San Francisco this afternoon for Honolulu and the customary ports of call in the Far East.

10-YEAR CASE YIELDS

We copy the following from a letter from D. O. Robinson, Spartanburg, S. C.:

"I called on Mr. J. A. Thompson, who was afflicted ten years ago with chronic Bright's Disease. It gradually grew worse until two years ago he was bedridden. Son and family gave up hope. Tried the Renal Compound, using about a dozen. Now up and much improved. Is well known. You can use this item, as he gives this privilege. His son is a prominent dentist."

There is no question about this patient having the chronic and supposed incurable form of kidney disease. Some late writers declare the sixth month puts the disease over the dead line. Physicians declared the chronic stage in this case was established ten years ago. Also note that patient was bedfast for two years before taking the treatment. This makes up a hopeless case under the old regime. We have declared over and over that there is some hope in even old and extreme cases, for some of them yield as in the above instance.

What excuse can be given for holding people who have chronic kidney disease to almost certain failure on Digitalis, Nitro-Glycerine and Balsam of Mixture when there is hope through the simple addition of this new bland and simple treatment. It does not conflict with physicians' prescriptions. Cases not serious enough to be in the hands of physicians often yield to Fulton's Renal Compound unaided. We desire to hear from and advise with cases not yielding.

Actors in a sketch called the Monks of Monastery which showed the monks indulging too freely in the juice of the grape, were egged from the stage in Perth Amboy.

Beverly, Mass., Taft's summer home gave him 159 more votes than Wilson and Roosevelt combined. The president got 1715, Roosevelt 886 and Wilson 670.

JURIST 'WEDS' COUPLE IN HURRY

C. B. Hofgaard, district magistrate of Waimea, Kauai, is perhaps the quickest administrator of marriage ceremony in the Territory of Hawaii, according to those who were fortunate enough to witness one of his recent marriages. The couple, son and daughter of Dai Nippon, and, who understand no English, word entered the district court of Waimea, long before the court opened, and asked that they be united in marriage according to the laws of Hawaii.

Judge Hofgaard, looking at the couple from under his spectacles, examined the marriage license, and, smiling walked up to the couple and ordered them in miscellaneous language to clasp hands. The subjects of the new Mikado of Japan, wondered but obeyed. Hofgaard tapped them gently in their shoulders and pronounced them husband and wife.

The couple thanked the Judge and those present at their wedding and walked out of the room to board an automobile, in which were two children waiting.

KEEPER AND RHINO IN DUEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Chief Krepper Snyder of the Central Park menagerie went into the stall of Old Smiles, the ill-tempered rhinoceros, to give the beast a coating of oil and lampblack to prevent her skin from cracking.

A rope about the animal's neck had been fastened to an iron bar. Snyder had a ladder inside the stall.

A small crowd of visitors stood in front of the stall as Snyder smeared the animal. The rhinoceros kept tugging at the rope, which slipped from its fastening. Then the beast turned on Snyder. The keeper ran and dodged about the cage as the animal tried to impale him. Bob Hurton, his assistant, was outside with an iron bar and whacked the rhinoceros each time she came within reach. She kept right after Snyder.

When the opportunity offered Snyder ran up the ladder and he had got nearly to the top when Old Smiles smashed into the ladder. Snyder tumbled upon the rhino's back. The ladder also landed on her spine, and so frightened her that she ran to the further end of the stall.

This gave the keeper a chance to squeeze out through the bars. Later in the day Old Smiles was securely tied and the oiling completed.

The state text-book board of Texas ordered the publishers of the geography to substitute Woodrow Wilson's picture for Taft's and to omit Abraham Lincoln's picture from the history. Governor Colquitt said he'd risen if Lincoln's picture was removed so it was allowed to remain.
